AVIATION CAREERS EDUCATION

ACE Camp 2009

What is ACE Camp?

Wilbur Wright College's Aviation Career Education (ACE) Camp is a weeklong summer day camp program that will be held at Wilbur Wright College from July 27 to July 31, 2009. ACE camp is designed to introduce inner city students, age 13-18, to flying and aviation related careers.

Camp Participants will learn about the world of aviation by participating in classroom activities and field trips. The camp is staffed by the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA).

ACE Camp students will:

Learn about airplanes, flying and flight safety

Take orientation flights with a certified flight instructor

Visit Midway International Airport and the FAA Control Tower

Attend the EAA Oshkosh Air Show

Meet and talk with aviation professionals and MORE!

2009 ACE Camp Sponsors

Admissions Requirements

ACE Camp admits 20 students each year. Students who have never attended an ACE Camp will have priority in admissions. Interested students must meet the following qualifications:

Have completed the 7th Grade

Be at least 13 years old by June 15, 2009

Have at least a "C" Average

Be physically fit to participate in camp activities

Be interested in aviation!

How much does it cost?

ACE Camp tuition is $175.00 and is to be paid when a student is notified of acceptance. The tuition covers meals, field trip transportation and other camp activities.

"Before ACE I never knew how cool aviation could be until I got to navigate an airplane."

-Alexander O. Centeno

How to Apply

An application for the Summer 2009 Wilbur Wright College ACE Camp is enclosed. Additional applications can be obtained by visiting the website at <http://wright.ccc.edu> or by contacting Alba Pezzarossi, Wilbur Wright College ACE Camp Co-Director at 773.481.8800.
